University of Regina

At-A-Glance Regina

The University of Regina is a dynamic and growing campus that seeks to support its students in the spirit of its motto, "As One who Serves". The University began in 1911 as Regina College and grew in size and significance to become an independent degree granting university in 1974. Today, the University of Regina offers its students program options in 10 faculties: Arts, Business Administration, Education, Engineering and Applied Science, Fine Arts, Graduate Studies & Research, Kinesiology & Health Studies, Nursing, Science, and Social Work. Our campus has a population of approximately 14,000 students and continues to grow each year. Additionally, the University of Regina offers many extra-curricular, professional, and volunteer training and program initiatives that allow its students, faculty and staff to fully realize their goals, interests, and further cultivate opportunities to serve the community.

We have a proud history of excellence in teaching, research and service. More than one hundred years of excellence in education has created a university devoted to making a difference in social, cultural and economic development both locally and internationally. Beyond its service and research initiatives, the University of Regina also contributes significantly to life in the community as a popular venue for concerts, art exhibits, sporting events, public lectures, theatrical performances, and other events. The University of Regina only continues to grow in its capacity to provide invaluable expertise in many areas.

Program

At-A-Glance

Open Your World: Canada

- *English Language Skills Development Courses
- *Social-Cultural Engagement Program

This student study tour program is a 2-week program delivered from August 15, 2016 to August 26, 2016, hosted by UR International, English-as-a-Second-Language (ESL) Program and various faculties and departments at the University of Regina. Students will have a complete English language immersion experience with a focus on language enhancement and cultural exploration.

The program adopts a blended learning model and offers the practical learning experience through the following activities:

- ▶ intensive but fun and engaging English language advancement lectures and seminars
- ▶ class observation directly related to student's major field of study
- ▶ collaborative learning with your peers and other students from the University of Regina to learn from one another, share ideas and cultural values

Dynamic cultural activities and field trips are thoughtfully designed to enhance students' appreciation of Canada's unique culture and history in an authentic way. Some of our feature activities include:

- ▶ Field trips to Saskatchewan's cultural and historical places of interest
- ▶ Weekend trips to historical towns and the City of Saskatoon
- ▶ Social and recreational activities in the City of Regina
- ▶ Organized activities with the University community

UR Program Fee:

Program cost per participant is CAD$1,950 and includes program tuition, on-campus accommodation and meals, international health insurance, program arranged activities, and airport pick-up and drop-off program.

Note: Program cost per participant is based on minimum number of 15 participants; if there are less than 15 participants program cost will be adjusted accordingly.

OUR WEATHER:

No matter where you come from, our variety of seasons will give you experiences few places can. You can ski in the winter and hit the beach in summer. Canada's seasons offer beautiful displays of colour and vibrant life.

Winter Average: - 11 °C

Summer Average: 25 °C

EASY TO GET AROUND

5 minute walk from campus to nearby restaurants and stores.

10 minute drive from the Regina International Airport to the U of R.

15 minute bus ride to the shopping, culture, and festivals of downtown Regina.

20 minute bike ride to larger grocery stores, movie theatres, and malls.

THE MAJESTY QUEEN CITY

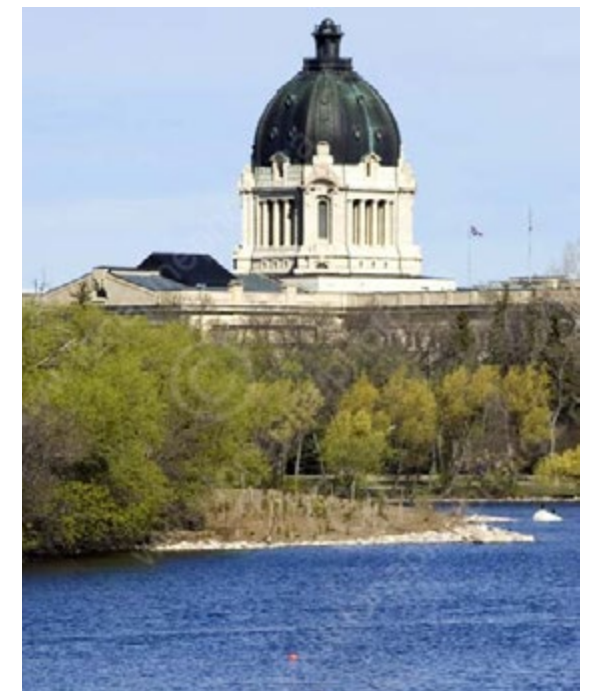

Regina is the capital or “queen” city of the province of Saskatchewan and continues to grow not only in its population, but in its cultural richness and diversity. Our growing population currently rests at approximately 238,000 people; this makes Regina a comfortable city to reside in, as it offers the amenities of a larger city while still maintaining the welcoming, community feel of a smaller urban centre. Winter to Summer, there's always a new experience for you to discover in Regina.

SHOPPING AND FOOD – the U of R is just across the street from restaurants and stores for your convenience. You can enjoy a change of scenery and study with your colleagues at the coffee shop; there is a convenience store with a post office; a gas station; and several restaurants.

WASCANA CENTRE – is one of the largest urban parks in North America, situated right beside the campus and in the centre of the city. This park has an impressive 2,300 acres of well groomed bike and walking paths, green leisure fields, a lake, a creek, abundant wildlife and native vegetation. You will often find park-goers having a picnic or BBQ, playing soccer, biking or walking, or excitedly watching a dragon boat race on the lake.

DOWNTOWN – is easily accessible by bus, bike, or car. You can choose from almost 200 shops and over 70 restaurants with flavors from all over the world. Check out the Regina Folk Festival in Victoria Park on a hot summer weekend, or ice skate there in the winter.
